FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 2, 2008

BleekerVigesaa General Contractors, Inc. has been named Small Business of the Year by the Greater Brighton Area Chamber of Commerce.

James Vigesaa, owner of BleekerVigesaa General Contractors, Inc., recently received the award at the chamber's annual Awards Banquet in Brighton, Colorado. Nominees were evaluated based on their company's business performance, innovation, growth and personal service to the community.

"It's absolutely an honor to be recognized by your community. It's more than someone can hope for when they're running a business and supporting a community they believe in," said James Vigesaa.

BleekerVigesaa General Contractors, Inc. provides pre-construction cost estimating, value engineering, constructability reviews, scheduling, sub-contract bidding and team leadership services to clients for their commercial projects. For more information see www.bvgci.com.
